It's all in the detail ...

You get the same attention to detail whether you have 2 delegates or 250. Conferences, AGM's, think tanks, strategy meetings, directors' get-togethers, team building, dinner dances... the important thing is providing the right atmosphere where the phones don't ring and you can think clearly.

Leisure Facilities

Both hotels offer fantastic leisure facilities – indoor swimming pools, sauna, solarium and fitness area. The Green Hotel also has a 4-sheet curling rink (available September to March), outdoor putting, croquet, squash court and all weather tennis courts.

'Outdoor activities are a great way of developing a team – and finding strengths you didn't know you had!'

For the adventurous amongst you, we can arrange a wide variety of outdoor activities from archery to quad biking and themed dinners. The extensive grounds of Kinross Estate can also host less energetic events such as car launches with the magnificent Kinross House as a back drop.

How can we incentivise you?

With rich colourful heritage in the surrounding area, you could select one of the many unusual venues just a short drive away – the city of Edinburgh is only 25 miles away with the castle or Royal Yacht Britannia or Scone Palace where they crowned the Kings of Scotland on the Stone of Destiny just north of Perth. We can even show you the tallest hedge in the world – the Meikleour Beech Hedge, 600 metres long and 30 metres high only a short drive away.

There are two 18-hole Golf Courses – The Montgomery and The Bruce. Both courses are deemed by many to be amongst Scotland's hidden gems. The courses have been renamed after the two families that have owned the estate around Loch Leven for most of the last three centuries. Both courses lie in beautiful, unspoilt parkland bordering Loch Leven. Undulating greens, streams, ponds and enticing tree-lined fairways provide a challenging round to both low and high handicap golfers alike.
